

Good afternoon everyone,

Today marks a significant moment in my life as I say farewell to this wonderful college community. After much thought, I have decided to step down from my position as a professor here.

I want to express my deepest gratitude to my colleagues, staff, and especially to my students. Teaching here has been not just a job, but a passion and a source of immense joy. The shared moments of discovery and learning in the classroom are something I will cherish forever.

To my fellow faculty, thank you for your support and collaboration. It's been a privilege to work alongside such talented and dedicated individuals. Together, we've built a nurturing environment for growth and innovation.

To the administration, thank you for believing in my vision and for the opportunities to contribute to this prestigious institution.

And to my students, past and present, your curiosity and enthusiasm have inspired me every day. Watching you learn and grow has been the most rewarding part of my career.

I carry forward countless memories, lessons, and friendships. Although I'm stepping away from teaching here, I will always remain connected in spirit.

Thank you all for the incredible journey. I look forward to seeing how all of you will continue to thrive and succeed.

With heartfelt gratitude,
