

Ladies and gentlemen,

As I stand here today, I am filled with mixed emotions. My journey as the chair of this department has been incredibly rewarding, and I am grateful for the opportunity to have served in this role.

Reflecting on the past years, I am proud of what we have accomplished together. We have faced challenges head-on, celebrated many successes, and continuously strived to support our students and faculty with dedication and passion. I am thankful to each of you for your hard work and commitment, which made these achievements possible.

Transition always comes with a hint of sadness, but it also brings excitement for new beginnings. I am eager to see the department reach even greater heights under new leadership. I have full confidence that you all will continue to forge ahead with the same spirit of collaboration and innovation.

Thank you for your support, trust, and friendship. It has been an honor to serve as your chair.

Thank you.
