

Ladies and gentlemen, faculty, students, and esteemed colleagues,
Today marks a new chapter in my journey as I transition from my role in university administration. I've been privileged to witness incredible growth and transformation within our institution. Together, we've embraced innovation, fostered inclusivity, and prioritized excellence. As we move forward, I envision a university that continues to break boundaries, empowering students with the skills and knowledge to lead and innovate. Let's build a future where every student has the opportunity to succeed, where our community thrives on collaboration and creativity. Thank you for your support and dedication. I am confident that our shared vision will guide us to even greater heights. Together, we will shape a brighter future for generations to come.
Thank you.
