

Good morning everyone,

I stand before you today filled with gratitude and joy as a new believer in Christ. This past year has been a transformative journey for me, leading me to experience the profound love and grace of Jesus.

Easter, the celebration of the resurrection, holds special significance in my heart. It is a reminder of the endless possibilities for renewal and hope. Just as Jesus rose from the dead, conquering darkness and bringing forth light, I too have found new life and purpose through Him. I used to feel lost and burdened by life's challenges, but now I am embraced by a community of love and faith. Through prayer and support from my fellow believers, I have discovered a peace that was once elusive.

Today, I celebrate not only Jesus' resurrection but also the new beginning He has given me. I am excited to continue growing in my faith journey, sharing His love with others, and living a life that reflects His teachings.

Thank you for welcoming me into this wonderful community. May we all be inspired by the hope and love that Easter brings.

God bless you all!
