

Hello everyone,

I'm so excited to share a little bit of my journey with you tonight. A few months ago, if you had told me I'd be standing here, I might not have believed it. But here I am, and I have to say, it's all because I've found something truly amazing.

Growing up, I felt like I was searching for something, though I wasn't quite sure what it was. I tried to fill that void with all sorts of things--friends, hobbies, and distractions. Yet, there was always something missing.

Then one day, a friend of mine invited me to a gathering just like this one. I was hesitant at first, but something told me I needed to go. That night, as I sat around the campfire and listened to others share their stories, I felt a warmth that I had never known before. It was as if all those things I'd been searching for were right here.

The love, acceptance, and peace I found in Jesus transformed my life. I began to understand that I'm never alone and that my life has a purpose. It's a journey, and I'm still learning every day. But now, I have faith to guide me and a community to support me.

I want to thank each and every one of you for being a part of this incredible journey. Whether you're here for the first time or you've been coming for years, know that you are loved and you are not alone.

Thank you for listening to my story. I'm so grateful to be on this path with all of you.

Blessings,

[Your Name]
