

Dear friends and family,

Today, we gather here with mixed feelings, as we bid farewell to someone who has been a cherished part of our church community. Our dear friend [Name] is setting out on a new journey, and while we are sad to see them go, we are also excited to see what God has in store for them.

[Name], your presence among us has been a blessing. You've inspired us with your kindness, faith, and unwavering support. You have always been there to lend a helping hand, share a warm smile, and offer words of encouragement. Your impact on our church family is immeasurable, and your absence will surely be felt.

As you move on to this new chapter, we want to remind you that you carry with you our love and prayers. We know that you will touch hearts wherever you go, just as you have touched ours. We are confident that God will guide you and use you in incredible ways.

Thank you for everything you've contributed to our community. Remember that this is not goodbye, but a 'see you later.' We look forward to hearing about your adventures and how God continues to work through you. May God's grace be with you, now and always.

With heartfelt gratitude and love,

[Your Name]
