

Good evening, everyone.

Today, we gather to honor and celebrate a beloved member of our church family. As [Name] prepares to embark on a new journey, we are filled with both sadness and gratitude.

[Name], your unwavering faith and kindness have touched us all. You have been a guiding light, sharing God's love through every action and word. Whether it was your dedication in volunteering, your comforting presence in times of need, or your infectious smile that lit up our gatherings, you have made a profound impact on our community.

As you move forward, know that our prayers and best wishes go with you. We are grateful for the beautiful memories we've shared and the lasting legacy you leave with us.

Thank you for everything, [Name]. You will be deeply missed, and always remembered in our hearts. God bless you on this new path.

Amen.
