

Certainly! Here's a simple example of a romantic-emotive engagement proposal speech:

"My love,

From the moment I met you, I knew there was something unbelievably special about you. Your laughter is my favorite melody, and your smile warms my heart even on the coldest days. We've shared so many unforgettable moments, and with each one, my love for you has only grown deeper and more profound.

You are my best friend, my partner, my everything. Together, we've built a life full of adventure and love, and there is no one else I would rather have by my side.

So today, in front of those dearest to us, I want to ask you: will you be the love of my life forever? Will you marry me and let us create our own beautiful story, hand in hand, heart to heart?

I promise to love you unconditionally, support you endlessly, and cherish every moment with you.

Will you say 'yes' to our forever?"
