

My Dearest [Girlfriend's Name],

From the moment our paths crossed, my world has been illuminated by the warmth of your smile and the grace of your presence. Every day with you has been a cherished melody, a sonnet composed by fate itself.

As we stand together on this journey of life, it becomes abundantly clear that my heart belongs to you and you alone. Your love has been a guiding light, a beacon that dispels the mundane and elevates the everyday into extraordinary moments.

With every beat of my heart, I am evermore certain that it is you I wish to hold for the rest of my days. Will you do me the incomparable honor of becoming my beloved wife, my partner in all things, and the keeper of my heart?

Your love is my most treasured gift, and I humbly ask for the privilege of dedicating my life to return that love, forever and always.

Yours eternally,

[Your Name]
