

Good evening, love.

I want to take a moment to express something that I've been feeling deeply for a long time now. You are my best friend, my confidant, and the person who makes every day brighter simply by being in it. Your kindness, your laughter, and your unwavering support have made me a better person. I can't imagine my life without you, and I know in my heart that we're meant to share our lives together. So, here in this moment, I want to ask you: Will you marry me? Will you be my partner, not just today but for all the days to come?

I love you with all my heart and can't wait to embark on this incredible journey together.
