

My Love,

From the very moment our paths crossed, you found a home in my heart, despite the miles that stand between us. Every message, every late-night conversation, and every moment we've shared has woven our lives together in the most beautiful way.

Distance may test us, but it has never diminished the depth of my love for you. In fact, it has only made it stronger, pulling us closer in ways that only two hearts connected by love can understand.

Today, I stand here with a single question that has filled my heart for so long: Will you embark on this incredible journey with me? Will you continue to be my partner, my love, my everything, no matter the distance?

I promise to cherish every moment we share and hold on to our dreams for the future. I promise to bridge the miles with love, patience, and understanding until the day we are side by side.

Together, we can turn any distance into closeness. You are my forever, and I can't wait to spend the rest of my life proving that to you.

With all my heart, will you marry me?
