

Ladies and gentlemen, thank you all for gathering here today. As we all know, family is the cornerstone of our lives, and it is in this spirit that we are here to discuss a potential union that promises to strengthen our bonds and enrich our shared journey.

Allow me to introduce to you, Riya and Aditya. Both come from families that cherish tradition, uphold values, and prioritize love and respect. Riya is a compassionate and driven young woman, cherished by her family and friends for her kindness and dedication. Aditya is a responsible and accomplished gentleman, admired for his integrity and warmth.

The proposal of bringing Riya and Aditya together is not only a promise of love and companionship between them but also a beautiful alliance between our two families. We have witnessed how their individual strengths can complement each other, creating a harmonious balance that will surely bring happiness and success.

This union is a celebration of our shared values, mutual respect, and the endless possibilities that lie ahead. We are confident that Riya and Aditya will embark on a wonderful journey together, supported by the love and guidance of their family.

With great joy and excitement, we put forth this proposal and look forward to the wonderful future it holds for both Riya and Aditya and our families. Thank you.
