

Dear Scholarship Committee,

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to respectfully appeal for reconsideration regarding my scholarship application. I understand that competition is rigorous, and I appreciate the effort involved in reviewing numerous applicants.

I would like to present a few points for your consideration:

1. Financial Need: My current financial situation has changed significantly since the original application. Unexpected circumstances have increased my financial obligations, making it challenging to meet tuition and living expenses without additional support.
2. Academic Performance: I have consistently maintained a high GPA, demonstrating my commitment to my studies and my potential to excel in my chosen field. I have attached my recent transcripts to provide evidence of my academic achievements.
3. Career Goals: Receiving this scholarship would directly contribute to my career goals. It would allow me to focus more on my studies, engage in research opportunities, and participate in relevant extracurricular activities, all of which are crucial for my professional development.
4. Contributions to Community: I have been actively involved in several community service initiatives, which have complemented my academic pursuits and allowed me to develop leadership skills. My participation in these activities aligns with the values your scholarship aims to promote.

I appreciate your time and consideration of my appeal. I am willing to provide any additional information or documentation that may assist in the reevaluation of my application.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
