Ladies and gentlemen of the committee,

Thank you for taking the time to consider my request today. I come before you with a heavy heart, seeking your understanding and compassion regarding my current financial situation.

Until recently, I had been managing my obligations diligently. However, unforeseen circumstances have taken a toll on my financial stability. Due to an unexpected medical emergency, my expenses have surged dramatically, and my regular income no longer covers these urgent costs.

I am committed to getting back on my feet and am taking steps to improve my situation, but it is a gradual process. I kindly ask for a waiver or any financial relief you could provide, which would offer significant relief and allow me to focus on recovery and stability.

I genuinely appreciate your time and consideration, and I hope for your kind understanding.

Thank you once again.
