

Welcome, everyone, to our international student orientation! We are thrilled to have you here as part of our diverse and vibrant community. Whether you've traveled near or far, we want you to know that this is your home away from home.

At this university, we cherish the wide range of cultures, languages, and perspectives that each of you brings. Our goal is to ensure that everyone feels respected, valued, and included, regardless of their background or identity.

During your time here, you'll have numerous opportunities to connect, share, and learn from one another. We have a range of resources and support services to help you succeed academically and personally. Don't hesitate to reach out, whether it's for academic advice, health services, language support, or just to talk.

Today, you'll learn about campus life, our various student societies, and how to get involved. Participate as much as you can; it's a fantastic way to meet people and create lifelong friendships.

Remember, you are not alone on this journey. We're here to support you every step of the way. Thank you for choosing our university, and we can't wait to see all that you will accomplish.

Let's make this an unforgettable experience, together!
