

Welcome everyone,

I'm thrilled to see so many eager faces here, ready to embark on an unforgettable camp adventure! To make sure we have a safe and fun experience, let's talk about some important camp rules.

First up, respect. Respect each other, the camp leaders, and our beautiful environment. Treat everyone as you'd like to be treated, and remember, we're all here to have a great time together.

Next, safety is our top priority. Please stay within the camp boundaries at all times. If you want to explore, make sure a camp leader is with you. And always wear your life jacket near the water - no exceptions!

When it comes to meals, let's be mindful. Clean up after yourself, and if you have any allergies or dietary needs, let us know right away. We want everyone to enjoy their meals without worry.

At night, our camp has a lights-out rule. We need our rest to fuel our activities and adventures. So when it's time for lights out, let's all settle down and recharge for another awesome day.

Finally, let's embrace the camp spirit! Try new activities, make new friends, and don't be afraid to step out of your comfort zone. This is your time to shine, explore, and have fun.

Thank you all for listening, and let's make this camp experience one to remember!
