

Ladies and gentlemen, thank you for gathering. I must express my disappointment regarding the room allocation at our hotel. The room I received did not match the description I was promised. It was much smaller and lacked the amenities I was expecting, which affected my overall experience. I believe this is an area where improvement is necessary to meet guest expectations. Thank you for your attention.