

Ladies and gentlemen,

Today, I stand before you to address an issue that has gone unchallenged for far too long--gender unfair treatment. This is a call to action, a demand for change, and a pledge that we will no longer remain silent.

Imagine a world where talent and hard work are the only measures of success. A world where opportunities are not dictated by gender, but by ability and dedication. We are not asking for special treatment; we are demanding equal treatment. Equal opportunities to prove ourselves, to excel, and to rise as high as our ambition will take us.

We will not be marginalized. We will not be sidelined. Together, we have the power to reshape the narrative, to break the barriers, and to create a fair and just environment for all. Let us unite, let us speak up, and let us ensure that we are the last generation to fight this battle.

Thank you.
