

1. **Introduction****
  - Greet the audience and officials present.
  - Briefly introduce yourself and your relation to the issue.
2. **Statement of Concern****
  - Clearly state the issue: poor quality of the product.
  - Mention how you came to experience or notice this issue.
3. **Description of the Problem****
  - Provide specific examples of the product's poor quality.
  - Mention how many people are affected, if applicable.
  - Highlight any failed attempts to resolve the issue with the company.
4. **Impact****
  - Explain how the poor quality has negatively affected you and others.
  - Discuss financial, emotional, or practical repercussions.
5. **Call to Action****
  - Suggest specific actions for the company or officials to take.
  - Request for better quality checks, refunds, or replacements, etc.
6. **Conclusion****
  - Reiterate the importance of resolving the issue.
  - End with a polite call for cooperation and resolution.