

Certainly! Here's a simple example of a speech for sentence structure clarification:

---

Ladies and gentlemen,

Today, I want to clarify sentence structures using a simple example.

Consider the sentence: "The cat sat on the mat."

1. Subject: "The cat" tells us who or what performs the action.
2. Verb: "Sat" shows the action performed by the subject.
3. Object: "On the mat" indicates where the action takes place.

In summary, a clear sentence structure helps convey the message effectively. Thank you for your attention.
