

**Title: Addressing Slide Discrepancies****

Hello everyone,

Thank you for your attention. I wanted to take a moment to address some discrepancies noted in the slides we reviewed earlier. Our aim is always to provide clear and precise information.

Firstly, on Slide 5, there was an error in the sales figure. It should read $1.2 million, not $1.5 million. This was due to a typographical error. We apologize for any confusion this might have caused.

Secondly, Slide 8 displayed an incorrect date for the upcoming product launch. The correct date is March 15th, not March 25th. Please make sure to update your schedules accordingly.

Lastly, Slide 12 contained an outdated customer satisfaction score. The latest score is 87%, not 82%, reflecting improvements in our customer service efforts.

We are in the process of correcting the slides and will distribute the revised version by the end of the day. Thank you for your understanding and patience. If there are any questions or further clarifications needed, please feel free to ask.

Thank you.
