

Ladies and gentlemen,

Good morning and welcome! Today, we gather not just as participants or spectators but as a community united by a common goal: to make a difference. Each step you take in this marathon is a step towards a brighter future for those in need.

Your dedication and enthusiasm are truly inspiring. Remember, it's not just about crossing the finish line; it's about the journey and the impact we create together. Let's run with heart and purpose. Thank you for being here and supporting this noble cause.

Let's make today unforgettable! Ready, set, go!
