

Ladies and gentlemen, esteemed judges, and fellow participants,
Welcome to this exciting debate competition. Today, we gather here not only to compete but to celebrate the power of speech and the art of persuasion. Debates are fundamental in shaping opinions and encouraging critical thinking, and I am thrilled to be a part of this intellectual event.

Let us remember that our aim is to engage in meaningful discussion, present our ideas clearly, and respect differing viewpoints. May this occasion be marked by insightful exchanges and mutual respect.

I hereby formally declare this debate competition open. Let the debates begin! Thank you.
