

Ladies and gentlemen, esteemed guests,

Today we gather not just to celebrate our rich cultural heritage, but to acknowledge the intertwined paths that have brought us here. Our history is woven from many strands, each unique and essential, forming the beautiful tapestry of our nation.

As we stand on the land that holds stories of both joy and pain, we commit to a future built on understanding and respect. Reconciliation is not just a word; it is a journey we embark on together, honoring the past while fostering relationships that heal and uplift us all.

Let us embrace the lessons of history, acknowledging the resilience and contributions of all communities. Let this ceremony be a symbol of our shared commitment to a future where diversity is celebrated, and unity is our strength.

Together, may we build bridges with compassion, ensuring that our cultural heritage remains a source of pride for generations to come.

Thank you.
