

Ladies and gentlemen,

As we gather here today to mark this farewell, I am overwhelmed with heartfelt gratitude for the moments we've shared. Each of you has contributed richly to the tapestry of my journey, and for that, I am truly thankful.

Reflecting on the years spent here, I am filled with appreciation for the support, camaraderie, and encouragement I have received. Your kindness has left an indelible mark on my heart.

I carry forward the lessons learned and the laughter shared, cherishing every memory. Thank you for being more than colleagues, for being friends, and for the extraordinary experiences that will stay with me forever.

Though I move on to new adventures, our paths will remain intertwined. Thank you, from the bottom of my heart, for everything.

With deepest gratitude and warmest wishes,
