

Ladies and gentlemen,

As we gather here today to say goodbye, I want to take a moment to express my heartfelt gratitude. It's been a privilege to work alongside such incredible individuals. Your support, dedication, and camaraderie have made my journey truly special.

To each and every one of you, thank you for the memories and the laughter we've shared. I am grateful for the lessons learned and the challenges overcome. While I may be moving on, the connections we've built will always remain close to my heart.

Thank you for everything. Wishing you all continued success and happiness.

With sincere thanks,
